You will be responsible for supporting key investment functions, including:

- Sourcing and evaluating investment opportunities.
- Transaction management, including market research, financial modelling, due diligence, and negotiations.
- Drafting of Fund Investment Committee papers.
- Fund raising, including preparation of fund publicity and marketing materials, financial modelling, and investor due diligence.
- Fund and asset level operational reporting.
- Operational support to fund investee companies covering corporate finance projects, governance, and reporting.

We are looking for qualified candidates with:

- Bachelor's degree in business, finance, economics, or similar; MBA or similar business orientated qualification, is an advantage.
- Approximately 4 years of relevant work experience within corporate finance, investment banking, consulting, or similar roles. Exposure to the Asian private equity sector (or similar direct investment or advisory role), real assets, forestry, and/or agriculture is an advantage.
- Advanced Microsoft Office user skills, including PowerPoint, Word, and Excel.
- Excellent time management and organisational skills.
- Excellent English language written and verbal communication skills; Asian language skills are an advantage.
- Solid financial modelling and company valuation skills.
- Solid knowledge of financial accounting principles.
- Ability to work in a small group, making decisions, often based on limited information.
- Ability to work independently, under supervision, but also be part of a team/group.
- Ability and desire to build strong relationships and work within a team environment.
- Ability and desire to work in an office with diverse cultures.

What can we offer?

Our environment is busy and supportive, with an experienced group of investment and forestry professionals to work with and learn from. The New Forests team is professional, warm, and relaxed. If you join us, you would be joining a growing, fast paced business which is an environmental and sustainable leader in landscape investments. You will be working with professionals who have a strong sense of purpose and are passionate about their work.
